City of Desert Hot Springs Appoints Interim Community Development Director

Desert Hot Springs, December 20, 2016: The City of Desert Hot Springs is pleased to announce that Charles Rangel has assumed the position of Interim Community Development Director for the City of Desert Hot Springs effective Monday, December 19, 2016. Charles has decades of experience, working as both a consultant and staff member within several Southern California agencies.

Charles' professional experience includes positions in municipal planning, project management, and environmental consulting. He has specialized in the areas of municipal services management, legislative analysis, and land planning/entitlement processing. As an independent consultant, he has built relationships with private and public sector development stakeholders throughout Riverside, San Bernardino, and Orange Counties. Most recently, Charles acted as the City of Placentia's Planning Manager.

Charles holds a BA in Economics with a minor in Urban Studies. He maintains professional memberships with the League of California Cities and the American Planning Association, where he has served in key leadership roles. Charles has also completed graduate coursework in Public Administration and served as Captain in the United States Army Reserve.

Please join us in welcoming Charles to the team.
