Desert Hot Springs, February 8, 2017: The third season of Desert Hot Springs Classical Concerts begins on Saturday, February 18, 2017 at 6:00 PM at Christ Lutheran Church, on 64565 Pierson Blvd.

The concert on Saturday, February 18th, features the Blakemore Trio from Nashville, Tennessee. Critics have hailed the trio an “all-but-perfect sense of ensemble, expressive phrasing, and great intonation” and have described their performances as having “riveting intensity.” The program includes two staples of the piano trio repertoire: Mozart’s sweet and charming Trio in G Major, K. 564 and Shostakovich’s masterpiece, Trio, Op. 67, expressing a profound memorialization of both national and personal tragedy and bravery. The trio will also perform a new piece of work composed for them by Los Angeles composer Adam Schoenberg.

Admission will be free due to underwriting from the Desert Hot Springs Community and Cultural Affairs Commission, and the support of local businesses including TOP Shop, Las Palmas Mexican Cuisine, Cabot’s Pueblo Museum, and Desert Valley Disposal. Audience members are encouraged to bring non-perishable food items for Food Now, and donations to benefit the church’s flood recovery fund are also welcomed.
