

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*Desert Hot Springs Classical Concert Series Continues

Desert Hot Springs, March 28, 2017: The third season of the Desert Hot Springs Classical Concert Series continues on Sunday, April 9, 2017 at 4:00 PM at Christ Lutheran Church in Desert Hot Springs.

This installment features Danny Holt, who will be making his solo piano debut in the series. Holt's program highlights lesser-known works by composers who are often overshadowed by their more famous relatives: C.P.E. Bach, Franz Xaver Mozart, Clara Schumann, and Fanny Mendelssohn.

"We're thrilled to announce, that after years of fundraising efforts, extensive work on the piano at our venue has recently been completed by some of the best Piano Technicians in Southern California," says Series Founder and Artistic Director, Danny Holt. "For me personally, this is exciting because now that we have a concert-quality instrument, we can feature more incredible pianists from Los Angeles and beyond."

Danny Holt has been called "exceptional" by the Los Angeles Times, as he brings his boundless energy and knowledge to his performances of both classical and modern repertoire. He has performed in various venues, most notably at Carnegie Hall, Walt Disney Concert Hall, and the Hollywood Bowl. He has also made appearances with many notable artists, such as the Los Angeles Philharmonic, Bang on a Can All-Stars, and Blue Man Group.

Admission will be free due to underwriting from the Desert Hot Springs Community and Cultural Affairs Commission, and the support of local businesses including TOP Shop, Las Palmas Mexican Cuisine, Cabot's Pueblo Museum, and Desert Valley Disposal. Audience members are encouraged to bring non-perishable food items for Food Now, and donations to benefit the Church's flood recovery fund are also welcomed.
